C F
Woke up this morning need my cappuccino

G C
To get those grey cells circling round

C F
The local caf' is calling me, all that stylish company

G C C7
The standout groovy guy across this town

F C
Earl Greys and Cabernets, the conversation's loud

F G C F G C
The dulcet tones of mobile phones, gotta be part of, the capuccino crowd

C F
From Christmas to Easter we visit the barista

G C
Greeting friends and strangers with a wink and a smile

C F
Chocolate and pastries, savouries and tasties

G C C7
Discretionary spending with impeccable style

F C
Lattes and canapes, nothing ordinary is allowed

F G
People waiting for the tables, in designer labels, want to be part of, the capuccino crowd

C F
Pretty girls in a social whirl

G C
Exercising freedoms and self esteem

C F
Always time to chat and to chew the fat

G C C7
It's so passe if you're not part of the scene

F C
Sipping cold beer with a phone to your ear, eager to make a splash

F G
Following the trend to spend hours on end and all of your capuccino cash

Rag break: E Am F C G C C

C F
Bertolucci and Fellini, focacias panninis

G C
Exotic café culture blows your troubles away

C F
Global disasters don't affect your choice of afters

G C C7
The cappuccino froth helps you get through the day

F C
Our world's unsavoury for certain, that's why we draw the curtain and the talk gets turned up loud

F G
Our private café where we turn a blind eye to despair and move on with, the cappuccino crowd
