OLD LOVE – Lyrics only

Here sitting on my own
Just staring into space
A simple sort of solitude
Avoids a world much too strange to face

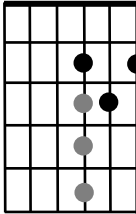

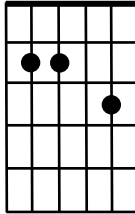

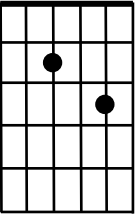

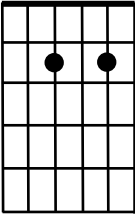

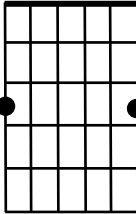

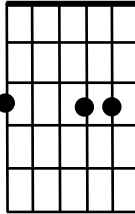

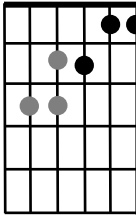

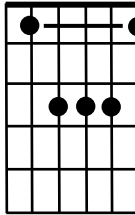

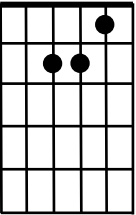

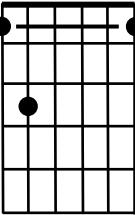

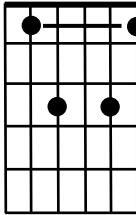

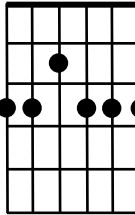

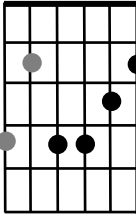

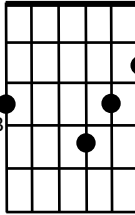

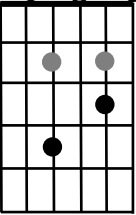

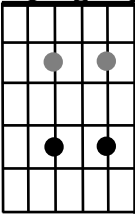

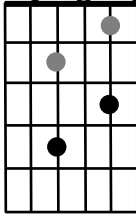

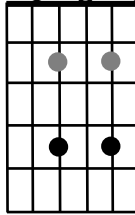

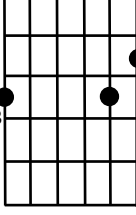

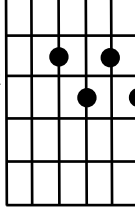

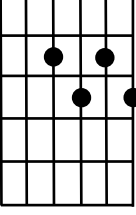

The hummingbirds and butterflies
All the colours and sounds
Trees that soar into a clear blue sky
Lift me high when I'm feeling down

I've found the peace and harmony
And all the little things that soothe the soul
Beautiful simplicity that really works for me
I wish I knew this all before

I got so old
Wond'ring why
I breathed these sighs
And realised
My happy cries
Were all about
You

You know I really do love you
