TAKE MY ADVICE – James Barnett

A new day is dawning now
A distant cold
Shiny tips to the grass
A new story told
A cold wind wakes tired eyes
To see this view
I tell you it's worth the price
But you always knew

You take my advice
Feeling something nice
It goes a long way my friend

The sun's day out
Is now closing in
Blue turns red in face
Where've you been
Fingers as cold as ice
How is this
When I warm your mind with nothing
But this gentle kiss

You take my advice
Feeling something nice
It goes a long way my friend
It goes a long way my friend
