ONE GOODBYE - Lyrics

One Goodbye must be the last
Our next Hello please make it the last
We all move in circles and all circles close
We can't tell the future or our fate I suppose

One word that haunts us both from the past
Sands of time flow much too fast
We love being together we hate being apart
No more stops on our journey trust in your heart

Each meeting so precious, each moment so rare
Time slips through our fingers, so 'til next time take care
Life moves fast and all things must pass
No time to cry say Hello not Goodbye

Each Goodbye is something sad
But we take the good with the bad
Don't take things for granted, dreams drift like smoke
Capture the moment the promise we spoke

Instrumental

Though time tries to change us resist while you can
Things that still bind us our fate's in our hands
Onward as friends strong to the end
Put the blue in my sky say Hello not Goodbye
