

RUNNING FROM RED

Silhouettes in the trees
Stealing food from the fields
Flashes in the sky
Running from Red

Can you tell me why?
My family is torn apart
Terror in the air
Running from Red

We'll meet at Waterloo
Twenty years from now
When we laugh and cry together
Will we remember how?

How we lost all that we had
But brother you and I know
You gotta keep your head
When you're Running from Red
