

ANOTHER YEAR

Another birthday
Another year gone
Look back and wonder
Where's it all gone
There's so much to do
And so little time
To make me a mark
And make it mine

Put down that credit card
Get out of that car
Breathe in the sweet breeze
And find who you are
Makin' waves and money
Ain't everything
Time's on your shoulder
And time's gonna win

Less time remaining
Than what's gone before
There's no use crying
There ain't no more
Love your love and friends
And your family, 'cos you'll
Soon be the deadwood in the family tree
